Your name has been provided as someone who is interested in attending a beginner's beekeeping course. The Jersey Cape Branch of the New Jersey Beekeepers Association in conjunction with Rutgers Cooperative Extension is holding a 6-session course in the spring of 2010. The first 5 sessions will be held on Friday evenings from 7 PM to 9 PM starting on March 26th through April 30th (No class on April 2th). The last session will be held when the bees arrive in May. The course will cover topics from bee biology, management, hive construction, pests and the installation of bees into the hive. The Jersey Cape Branch is offering this course in several different Options depending on the interest of the individual. First priority will be given to members of a branch of the NJ State Beekeepers Association.

A $100 deposit is required to hold a spot and order one of the bee Options. Please make check payable to: Jersey Cape Beekeepers and send it along with the registration form to Bill Eisele at the above address. Thanks, we hope to hear from you by the March 18, 2010.

Karl Novsak, President Jersey Cape Branch of the New Jersey Beekeepers Assoc.
